

YOU ASKED FOR IT

Perspective – 8/2/2020

OVERVIEW

Although we do not know where God is leading, we are confident that God is moving. Let us not sit at the feet of our own comfort, but rather follow the God of the extraordinary -- declaring our gratitude and admitting we need Him even more in this season.

Scriptures (NIV): Exodus 32:1-2; 13:3, 6-10, 14

APPLICATION

- Complete the following statement and share the reason why. "The thing I miss most about life before Covid is _____!"
- While in the wilderness and living in the unfamiliar, the Israelites made a physical idol to worship. Just like them, we have things that distract us from keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus. What are some idols (distractions) that you have found during this season that are taking your attention away from Him?
- God used festivals and celebrations to help the Israelites remember exactly what He had done in the past. Through these, the people remembered His faithfulness. Share some ways you remember and celebrate what God has done in your life.

HOMEWORK: Remember God's faithfulness this week. Take time to answer the following and email your responses to coms@blueridge.org.

- a. How has God been faithful to me?
- b. I am grateful for...
- c. The attributes of God I love are...
- d. God, I need your help with...
